

ANNOUNCEMENT

Northern Transportation Company Limited is very pleased to announce that Elizabeth Suluk-Copland has joined the company as the Senior Manager, Kivalliq Region, effective February 1, 2008.

Reporting directly to the President, Mr. David Foster, Ms. Copland will operate from Arviat, where she currently lives. The Senior Manager for the Kivalliq Region will oversee community freight delivery, ensuring that freight for community customers is delivered in a timely and efficient manner by working both with shippers and company's operations staff.

Ms. Copland brings a wealth of experience to NTCL. Most recently, she was the Area Economic Development Officer for the Hamlet of Arviat, where she was also the first woman to hold the office of Mayor from 2004 – 2006. She was variously Chair, Acting Chair and Vice-chair at the Nunavut Impact Review Board, where she worked for 10 years. She is currently a member of the Nunavut Planning Commission and is also the Coroner for Nunavut, a position she has held for the past 20 years.

Ms. Copland can be reached at ecopland@ntcl.com. The NTCL office in Arviat will be operational by February 15.
